OUR WEDDING GRAFT.

There were boxes from the silversmith of every sort and size, Containing such a collection as never er mortal eyes Conceived that any human brain could possibly devise To inflict upon an unsuspecting man.

A dozen "chocolate muddlers" came;
we set them in a row; A pair of "padding pickers"—or, at least, she called them so; A "Cooper" and a "spreader" and a few you couldn't know Unless you had a drawing or a plan.

We received a "pastry pusher" with a polish up to date.
And a solid "salad sifter" we suspect is triple plate,
And a "macaroni muser" that could only emanate
From the fancy of a badly-balanced brain.

Then we got a "custard server" which an unforgiving friend, In a far-from-Christian spirit, had the hardihood to send;
And when a "turnip tosser" came,
along about the end, My reason fairly tottered from the strain.

So, when she took the wrappings off and eagerly displayed A cross between a battleax, a putter and a spade, I tried to look, unshaken, but I didn't, I'm afraid, Till she clasped her hands in ecstasy and cried:

"Now, isn't that a darling! And so sweet of Mrs. Brown!
It's exactly what I wanted; they're the latest thing in town.
Just imagine my forgetting at the first to put her down, When I'd really like to have her come, beside!"

When I ventured to inquire what perchance might be the use Of that weird and warlike weapon, she replied: "You silly goose, It's a special spoon constructed just for serving charlotte russe; I should think that you could recognize a spoon!"

I explained the only reason why I couldn't figure out What the purpose of the lady and her loot was all about, Was because for just a moment I had had a horrid doubt That perhaps she might be "throwing the harpoon."—Puck.

SIX HAND EUCHRE CLUB HELD FINE MEETING.

Mrs. Morris Bear was hostess at a delightful meeting of the Six Hand Euchre club yesterday afternoon at her attractive home on North Palafox street. There were many pleasant features of the afternoon, among which was the serving of dainty refreshments by the hostess. Mrs. Sol Cahn won the first prize, Mrs. Ed. Forchheimer the second, and Mrs. Kramer the guest prize. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Max Bear on East Hill.

THE W. C. T. U. WILL MEET TODAY.

There will be a regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. this afternoon at 3 o'clock as usual at the First Presbyterian church. Considerable work is before the ladies, for which they are preparing zealously.

PROGRESSIVE EUCHRE TONIGHT AT THE PROGRESS CLUB.

There will be a meeting of the Progressive euchre players tonight at the Progress club, the club rooms to present their usual Wednesday night appearance. The game is sure to be of interest.

EAST HILL EUCHRE MET WITH MRS. BENNETT.

A very pleasant meeting of the East Hill Euchre Club took place yesterday at the home of Mrs. Bennett on Ninth avenue, all present having reported an exceptionally interesting game. Mrs. Geo. Hoffman won the first prize, Mrs. W. C. Walker the second, Mrs. Will Ferguson the lone hand, and Mrs. L. M. Davis the consolation. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. C. D.

Beyer on Hayne street.

MR. D. HALE WILSON HAS BEEN ILL.

Friends of Mr. D. Hale Wilson will be concerned to learn of his recent severe illness. He is still confined to his bed, but is now on the road to recovery, it is thought.

NONE SUCH CLUB MEETING WAS POSTPONED.

The meeting of the None Such club, which was to have taken place today at the home of Mrs. C. Villar, has been postponed, Mrs. Villar having been called to Andalusia on account of the death of her sister's baby.

PASTIME EUCHRE CLUB WILL MEET TONIGHT.

The regular meeting of the Pastime Euchre club will take place this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. J. McCarthy on East Wright street. The Pastime is preparing one of its especially interesting meetings as usual, being the most popular club in the city.

MRS. BAILEY ENTERTAINED THE TUESDAY BRIDGE CLUB.

Mrs. Bailey was hostess yesterday at the regular meeting of the Tuesday Bridge Club which occurred at her home at the Navy Yard. Mrs. Jno.
C. Avery won high score. The next meeting will take place at the home of Mrs. Robert Hyer on North Palafox street.

MR. N. J. LILLARD OFF FOR BEAVER FALLS, PA.

There will be a feeling of distinct loss at The Journal this week, and the composing room, (this is very figuratively speaking), will probably go it on three legs (!) until Sunday or Monday.

SHAKESPEARIAN MEETING ON MONDAY NIGHT.

A Shakespearian reading took place on Monday night at the home of Mrs.
Jeter on N. Davis street, a number having been present, and all enjoying the meeting. "A Comedy of Errors" was the play under discussion, and it is hoped that this will mean a start in the right direction, as there are exceptionally few cities of Pen-sacola's size who do not boast of a Shakespearian club.

MEETING OF THE CIVIC LEAGUE THIS AFTERNOON.

A most important meeting of the Civic League will occur this afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. parlors, the hour having been set for 4:30 o'clock. The annual election of officers will take place, and other matters of importance will be under consideration. It especially behooves every member of the Civic League, and also every up-to date, progressive woman who for some unusual reason has not become identified with this splendid movement, to be present today, as the importance of getting in new officers for the coming year during which an almost inestimable amount of work is to be accomplished, will at once be recognized as a matter of paramount importance—not only for the ladies, alone, but for Pensacola as well.

THE BEARD RECEPTION AT TALLAHASSEE.

Tallahassee, May 11.—Perhaps never even in Tallahassee's palmiest days was the historic old Cal residence, known as the "Long's Grove mansion," decked in more festive and harmonious attire than on Saturday night last when its hospitable doors were thrown open to do honor to Florida's guest, United States Senator W. H. Money, of Mississippi.

Senator Money came to Tallahassee Friday afternoon in response to an invitation from the members of the house of representatives to make an address to the legislature on the subject of negro disfranchisement, and, while here, was the guest of State Senator John S. Beard, of Pensacola. Mr. Beard and family are at present occupying the old home of ex-Governor Call, just outside the city limits, and within a block of the executive mansion.

The reception was a most brilliant one. The stately beauty of the mansion, with its substantial furniture of a by-gone day, was enhanced by decorations of trailing vines, foliage plants and brilliant hued flowers, all glowing in the soft light of wax candles within and Japanese lanterns without. Guests were met at the door by the genial host himself, who gave to each a hearty handshake and a cordial welcome. The receiving line was formed in the front drawing room, and at its head stood Senator Money with his handsome hostess.

They were assisted by Mrs. William K. Beard, mother of Senator Beard, Governor Gilchrist, Mrs. James G.
Gibbes, Senator Hudson, president of the senate, and his charming wife; Hon. Ion Farris, speaker of the house; Senator and Mrs. Humphries, Mr. and Mrs. Callins, Mrs. Voucher, Mr.
James E. Alexander, Senator and

Danger From Rats

No One Can Afford to Allow These Pests to Live.

A single rat will sometimes do more than ten dollars damage in your home or store in a night.
And the rat is everywhere, but raises large families to destroy property and endanger health.

At the first sign of rats, drive them out of the house to die, with Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste. Guaranteed to absolutely exterminate them or your money back. Also sure death to cockroaches and other vermin.

Stearns' Electric Paste is sold everywhere, or sent express prepaid on receipt of price. 2 oz. box 35c, 16 oz. box $1.00.

Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill.

Greenwood the lone hand and booby.
The next meeting will occur at the home of Mrs. Greenwood on Gregory street.

MARRIED LADIES' EUCHRE CLUB WITH MRS. BELL.

The Married Ladies' Euchre Club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Bell on Government street.
A delightful time was reported, the afternoon having been one of much pleasure for all who attended.

NEW CHURCH ASSOCIATION MEETS.

The New Church Association met yesterday afternoon in Hannah hall, a good attendance having been reported by those who were present.
Many matters of interest were under discussion, among which was the important one of raising extra sums to go toward the general building fund.
The ladies are all working energetically, and are doing fine work.

NEW CIRCULATION MAN ARRIVES.

Mr. Chas. F. Steward, of The Journal's circulation department, was busy at home yesterday taking care of a new baby boy which had just arrived there. The little stranger is robust and lively and gives indications, from the noise he makes, of developing into a first-class circulation man by the time his father gets ready to retire from the work.

MOTHERS' MEETING WAS WELL ATTENDED.

The Mothers' club of the W. C. T. U. held a fine meeting yesterday afternoon at the usual hour at the home of Mrs. J. H. Moore on East Wright street. An interesting program was enjoyed by the ladies, and much valuable discussion took place during the session. The mothers' meetings are growing in popularity, and every mother in the city should attend them.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer are visiting relatives and friends in Birmingham, Ala.

The many friends of Miss Laura Bowman will be glad to learn that she is rapidly improving after a severe illness with typhoid fever.

CENTURY YOUNG PEOPLE ATTEND ENJOYABLE BALL.

Special to The Journal.
Century, May 11.—One of the most enjoyable balls of this season occurred at the Century Club Friday evening. The music was excellent, and delightful refreshments were served by the Century young ladies.
Many out of town guests were present.

A number of the younger set, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Smith, enjoyed a hay ride and moonlight picnic Thursday evening.

Universal regret is expressed at the death of Mr. J. B. Vaughn, who died here Friday. Mr. Vaughn was one of the best known men in Escambia county.

Miss Lottie Rice, of Pensacola, was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Bawlin, several days this week.

W. H. Crawford, a prominent young Montgomery attorney, is in Century, the guest of friends.

Miss Ethel Cuyler is entertaining the Misses Mary and Sallie McEllan.

Mrs. W. Hunt Harris, Judge and Mrs.
J. L. Reeves, of Pensacola, and Mrs.
Robert Howard Gamble.

In the dining room the table was laid, beautiful with snowy linen, cut glass and exquisite china, and tall vases filled with lovely, long-stemmed roses, alternated with silver candelabra in which candles gleamed through rose-tinted shades. Here were served delicious cakes and ice-cream. At the rear end of the hall punch was dispensed by Mrs. Lottia Gamble Yonge.

Both houses of the legislature and the town acquaintances of Senator and Mrs. Beard were well represented in the large company that filled the spacious rooms, and conversation was enlivened by strains of music from a string band stationed in a little balcony above the front veranda. Senator Money is an exceptionally interesting and fluent talker, and made a most agreeable impression during his stay in Tallahassee. He left for his home in Mississippi Sunday afternoon.

BISHOP H. C. MORRISON, D. D., HOLDS ALABAMA CONFERENCE.

Rev. C. W. Gavin, pastor of the First Methodist church, informs us that Bishop H. C. Morrison will preside at the next meeting of the Alabama Annual conference, which will be held in Opelika, Ala., next December. All the Methodist churches in Florida west of the Chattahoochee river form a part of the Alabama conference. Hon. A. M. McMillan, of this city, will attend as a lay delegate from the Pensacola district, having been recently elected. At this session the delegates will be elected to the general conference, the law making body of the church, and meets every four years. The next session will be held in Asheville, N. C., in May, 1910, when possibly three or four new bishops will be elected and ordained. There is much said recently of Rev. J. S. Frazer, D. D., presiding elder of this district, being made bishop at this session.

Mr. Gavin thinks the Alabama conference exceedingly fortunate in having Bishop Morrison as its president, as he is a favorite with the ministers and one of the most eloquent of the College of ten Bishops of the South ern Church. He hopes to have the bishop with him to preach in his beautiful new church here this fall and then to have the session of 1910 to meet here.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY TO UNCLE REMUS FUND.

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Uncle Remus Memorial association held its regular meeting Friday morning, May 7, with its president, Mrs. A. Mc-D. Wilson, in the chair.

Reports of a gratifying nature were made by the chairmen of various committees, and the plans outlined for future work also showed that the members are enthusiastically alive to the responsibility they have undertaken.

The report of the proceeds from the recent benefit at the Queen theatre showed a clear profit of $105 to the auxiliary, while that of the beautiful lawn fete in charge of Mrs.
Brevard Montgomery and her assistants, recently given at "The Sign of the Wren's Nest," added $137 to the treasury of the Uncle Remus fund.

The secretary stated that a box of rare coins of ancient Greece and Rome had been sent to the auxiliary by Dr. A. J. Woodcock, of Camp Riverside, Byron, Ill., as a memorial gift, the donor being an ardent admirer of the character and genius of Joel Chandler Harris.

A letter was also read from Mr.
P. W. Coyle, president of the park commission, of Altamonte, Fla., stating that he had fallen the honor of naming a playground recently acquired in the heart of that city "The Uncle Remus Playground." Especial interest attaches to the history of this ground, it having been the site of a federal prison during the "internal strife of the sixties." It is the desire of Mr. Coyle that it be divested of this unwholesome memory, and toward that end he has given it the name which he believes will successfully tend to do it.

Among the plans outlined for the purpose of raising money for the memorial fund was that of a play, "High Mountain," the scene of which is laid in and about Atlanta. This play will be given at the Grand Friday, May 28, by the Thalian Dramatic club, an organization in Miss Elizabeth Hanna's school. These young people have shown historic ability of an unusual order and a great success is predicted for their play, for which the boxes and numbers of tickets have already been engaged.

There were several other plans submitted, all of which will be developed and reported in due time.—Atlanta Georgian.

Washing is Simply No Work at All with Lavadura to help you. Simply put a tablespoonful in the tub when you soak the clothes over night, then rinse in clear water and—your work is done.

Lavadura

"It Softens the Water" is unequalled for washing woolen blankets and flannels so they will not shrink, or colored goods so they will not fade. Doesn't injure the most delicate fabrics—and saves your hands!

Used in dish-water instead of soap, Lavadura cleans the china, glassware, milk bottles, cans, pots and pans as they were never cleaned before. Destroys odors and brightens everything washed with it. Just try it.

Ask for it at Grocers and Druggists in 5 cent and 10 cent Packages

It is harmful, you know, to bathe in hard water. Soften it with Lavadura
and see how much better you feel.

tractive guests of Miss Irene Glover.
Miss Gilchrist, a charming young lady of Evergreen, is the guest of Mrs. Dr. Weaver.
Mr. J. Moore, of Muscogee, was a visitor here several days last week.
Miss Marion Black visited friends in Brewton the latter part of the week.
Miss Florrie Craver, of Bluff Springs, is the attractive guest of Miss Cornelia Woods.
Friends of Mr. Dan Baker will regret to learn of his serious illness.

TO THE BUSINESS GIRL.

A man once sent his two sons to college and before they went he urged them to be economical. He chuckled as he said it, for he knew their ideas on the subject, and he surmised that there might be some difference of opinion as to just what constituted "being economical."

At Christmas vacation time he demanded an expense account and for answer the younger son, who was inclined to extravagance, grinned and handed over a little red book. "Here, father," he said, "is a small account that you won't have to pay, thanks to my careful brother. I've kept a list of the things he wouldn't let me buy Every time I saw a necktie or some gold sticks, or most any old thing I wanted, he would pounce upon me, drag me off and then say: 'Come on now. If you want it tomorrow come back and look at it and then, if you still want it the next day, buy it.' Of course, I usually forgot all about it, but I kept the list when I remembered long enough. 'Now father,' and he grinned again, 'I think I need a little of that money I didn't spend.'"

I fancy we all can appreciate this boy's theory of economy, for it's natural to want to spend the money we
